What should I bring?

We're roughing it, so keep it simple. You should bring your own pillow, sleeping bag or bedding sheets, extra blanket, along with bath towel and toiletries. Also, bring a Bible, notebook, and pen. You will want to take notes during the teaching sessions. LEAVE YOUR VALUABLES AT HOME. The cabins will not be locked. Please keep your wallet, cell phone, and any other valuable items on you at all times.

What is there to eat?

We're glad you asked. You are welcome to stop for a quick bite on the way. There will be no dinner this year, but we will have a nachos and churros after the sessions on Friday night. We will have a hot breakfast on Saturday morning and lunch about noon. You are also welcome to bring your own snacks, drinks, and water bottle. The coffee and snack shop will also be open on Friday night and Saturday morning.

How do I get there?

Directions to the camp are below. When you get there, you can park in any available parking spot and check in at The Chapel on top of the hill. There you will receive your cabin, map, and retreat materials.
