Job Summary: The Worship Director is responsible to lead a team that raises the spiritual temperature of our congregation through transformational worship experiences.

4 Things We Are Looking For:

CHARACTER:

- Must first and foremost demonstrate a heart for God and a lifestyle of lavish worship.
- Display integrity of honoring God in public and private regardless of the cost.

COMPETENCY:

- Experience leading in a church setting
- Ability to cast vision, clarify goals, discover, develop, and direct a team.
- Strong vocal and instrumental skills; understanding of trends in contemporary and emerging worship. Basic understanding of music theory preferred.
- Exceptional communication and organization skills.
- Ability to oversee the Worship ministry including elements of musicians and singers.
- Ability to oversee the Tech Director in charge of sound, visuals, lighting, recording, and broadcasting.
- Ability to choose theologically sound, culturally relevant, congregationally engaging, God-focused songs for worship services in collaboration with worship team and pastoral staff.
- Ability to coordinate scheduling and leading music team rehearsals.
- Ability to provide input into the music ministry budget.

CHEMISTRY:

- Shares New Life’s Vision & Values. Enjoys being together with team. Appreciates and thrives in the pace, purpose, and pressure of a church-planting movement church.
- Ability to work and contribute to a team-based environment; adaptable to multiple worship styles, music styles and venues.
- Wired to magnetically recruit, train, mentor and grow the volunteer ministry base.

CALLING:

- Possesses a clear sense of divine direction and destiny to serve this mission for the glory and honor of Jesus.
- Provide leadership coordination for “special” worship services; explore and implement ways for using church musicians and vocalists in outreach opportunities.
- Required presence at key outreach services, i.e., Christmas, Easter, Mother’s Day, etc.
- Demonstrate a passion for engaging the church in worship with sensitivity to the Spirit’s leading.
